

Scholarship applications to attend this year's Community Legal Centres Queensland State Conference are now open.

Thanks to sponsors – Minter Ellison, Herbert Smith Freehills, Queensland Law Society and QLeave – Community Legal Centres Queensland is offering a limited number of scholarships for First Nations CLC staff to attend the 2023 conference.

With the theme: Connect, Respect, Reflect – the conference will be held at the Hotel Grand Chancellor in Meanjin/Brisbane on Wednesday 31 May and Thursday 1 June.

When awarding the scholarships, preference will be given to First Nations staff who have not previously attended a conference.

What's included:

2 Day Conference Registration
$200 travel subsidy (for staff from regional and remote centres)

What's not included:

Masterclass registrations
Travel and accommodation expenses beyond the travel subsidy.
Travel subsidy for applicants from Brisbane

Applications close Wednesday, 26 April. All applicants will be advised of the outcome of their application by COB on Thursday 27 April.

Apply via: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/CLCQ23scholarships>

For more information about the conference: <https://www.communitylegalqld.org.au/community-legal-centres-queensland-state-conference-2023/>