

Scholarships for First Nations, Regional and First Contact Staff

Scholarship applications to attend this year's Community Legal Centres Queensland Conference are now open.

Thanks to our generous sponsors, Community Legal Centres Queensland is offering a limited number of scholarships for First Nations, Regional and First Contact staff who are employed at a Queensland Community Legal Centre to attend the 2024 conference.

The conference will be held at the Hotel Grand Chancellor in Meanjin/Brisbane on Tuesday 21 May and Thursday 22 May.

When awarding the scholarships, preference will be given to people who have not previously attended a conference.

What's included:

2 Day Conference Registration

What's not included:

Travel and accommodation expenses

Meal and incidental expenses

Applications close Friday 22 March. All applicants will be advised of the outcome of their application by COB on Tuesday 26 March. This will enable unsuccessful scholarship applicants to still register before early bird registrations close.

Apply via: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/24CLCQscholarships>

For more information about the conference: www.communitylegalqld.org.au/2024conference