Our Values

Leadership: We have a strong learning and innovation culture; we are ambitious for the sector; and we lead by example to build and support quality and continuous improvement.

Integrity: We build trust through our transparency, accountability, empathy and courage.

Fairness: We show compassion; we recognise the dignity of all people; and we advocate for justice for people and communities experiencing vulnerability and disadvantage.

Respect: We listen; we embrace diversity, equity and inclusion; and we elevate the voices of the sector and their communities.

Collaboration: We are a unified sector; we build and maintain strong partnerships; and we are committed to consultation and working together.

Community Legal Centres Queensland acknowledges Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples as the original inhabitants of Australia and the traditional custodians of the continent, whose cultures are among the oldest living cultures in the world.

We recognise the role and accept the responsibility that Community Legal Centres Queensland has in advancing and respecting the rights of First Nations peoples by working collaboratively with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and communities in working towards our strategic goals with our members and their communities.

Objective 1:

Work with Queensland community legal centres to continually improve organisational sustainability and service quality

1.1 Improve systems and practices across the sector

- Maintain the accreditation program
- Launch the First Nations sector strategy
- Support CLCs in implementing best practice around First Nations service delivery and supporting the First Nations workforce
- Support CLCs in their transition from CLASS to other CMS products

1.2 Support and develop the sector workforce

- Offer regular training and development opportunities in priority areas through targeted channels
- Support the sector to become an employer of choice, including improving remuneration and conditions for CLC workers
- Develop leadership skills through specialist training

1.3 Model good practice as a peak organisation

- Improve internal governance, systems and practices
- Identify new funding sources for priority initiatives
- Implement the Community Legal Centres Queensland First Nations Action Plan

Objective 2:

Work with Queensland Community Legal Centres to improve relationships and increase profile and resourcing of the sector

2.1 Foster relationships and pursue successful partnerships to grow and diversify sector resources

- Continue to nurture and strengthen relationships with our First Nations colleagues and stakeholders
- Build and strengthen relationships with and between member CLCs
- Maintain and foster member, government and stakeholder relationships
- Actively pursue strategic relationships and memberships in areas that extend Queensland CLCs' profile, resources and support bases
- Work with legal assistance services in collaborative service planning initiatives under the National Legal Assistance Partnership agreement

2.2 Build profile and recognition of the Queensland CLC sector

- Implement a communications strategy that focusses on the end of NLAP and the negotiations of the new national partnership mechanism
- Promote the work of CLCs and their impact in the community

Objective 3:

Working with Queensland Community Legal Centres to unite around common objectives to bring about change

3.1 Build data, insights and knowledge

- Draw on accreditation insights to build knowledge and identify future priorities
- Support CLCs to prioritise evaluation, evidence gathering and demonstration of impact through client stories
- Strengthen CLCQ's capability to access and analyse data to support sector advocacy through the implementation of a CRM

3.2 Coordinating advocacy for change

- Continue to work with CLCs to elevate the voices of communities impacted by disasters and climate change to enhance sector resources, advocacy and law reform
- Be a platform for increased awareness and advocacy for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander voices on matters relating to First Nations people and communities
- Continue to be a voice of the sector on the funding profile for CLCs
- Provide coordination support to members on shared issues of legal and social policy reform
